AN AWFUL TRAGEDY.

A Pittsburgh Man Murders His Wife and Two Children.

HE THEN SETS FIRE TO THE HOUSE

To Hide the Evidences of the Crime. A Third Child, Who Escapes the General Massacre, Tells the Police His Father Did the Deed-The Murderer Under Arrest-A Terrible Crime Prompted by Jealousy.

PITTSBURGH, PA., July 26 .- A fearful triple tragedy took place during the early hours this morning, two children and a mother meeting their fate at the hands of some flend.

It was about 1:30 this morning when the South Side fire department was called out to extinguish a slight fire in the house of John Smouse, who lived on Oak Alley, on the side of the hill. There was but a slight fire and the men had no difficulty in extinguishing it.

Some of the members of the department in looking about the house were horrified at the sight of three dead bodies lying close to one another. They were those of Smouse's wife and two small children. There were three ugly deep dents in the poor woman's head, which showed thut she had first been struck a deadly blow from behind, then the fearful work was finished with some blunt instrument, either a hatchet or a blunt instrument, either a hatchet or a

The little children had the appear ance of having been smothered to death ance of having been smothered to death, though their poor bodies also showed marks of violence. Their clothing was also burned a little, though had they been living when the fire started, they would have had no trouble in getting away from the small blaze. The children were Mary and Maggie and were four and two years old respectively.

The husband was at once surrounded by the firemen, and the police were by the firemen and the police were sent for. He told a story to the effect that he had been sleeping on the floor downstairs, but was awakened by smoke and ran up stairs to extinguish the flames. It was then, he said, that he first discovered the dead bodies of his wife and two children.

The police, however, have a different idea of the crime and at once placed Smouse under arrest. They were confident a triple murder had been committed and say that the murderer set fire to the house to conceal the crime, Smouse is a laborer, 35 years of age, and apparently very ignorant.
There was one more child in the family but by some means the little one raminy but by some means the fitte one escaped the general massacra. The child who was saved is only five years old, but this morning the weeping boy told the police that his father killed his mother, "He hit her on the head three times with the hatchet," sobbed the little fellow. little fellow.

The neighbors think jealousy was the cause of the awful deed.

The awful work of the assassin was apparent in the house to-day. On the floor were two hammers covered with blood, a broken lamp, and blood on nearly every piece of furniture and every part of the floor. The room was in terrible disorder, showing that a desperate battle took place between the murderer and his victim, his wife.

After the mother had received her

After the mother had received her

After the mother had received her death blow, it required but a moment to crush out the lives of the children. His next work was to conceal his crime and after putting the bodies on the bed he placed a lamp under the bed and turned up the wick until the flames reached the mattress.

reached the mattrees.

He then fled, forgetting to dispatch the fifteen-weeks-old baby in the cradle. When the fire was extinguished the little one was found to be unnarmed.

The fourth child, who is now in the police station, saved his life by escaping from the building. Smouse sits sullenly in his cell and refuses to say anything of the crime.

It turns out that Smouse had insured

the lives of the two murdered children. Missionaries Mardered.

know he has a tempen"

"Well, it all began yesterday morning
when I found the invitations to the Van Sunblotz reception in George's waste basket."

"In the waste basket?"

"In the waste basket?"

"Yes, after I had been wondering why they didn't come. I wanted especially to go because George's marespecially to go because George's married sister was dying to go and was not asked—there is nothing like teaching your husband's relatives their place at once, my dear. Well, when I found the invitations I knew that George had hidden them, for I had heard him giggling the evening before and telling that horrid Teddy that it was too hot to wear a dress coat."

"You didn't think Teddy horrid be-fore you were married. But what ex-cuse did George make for putting the invitations in the waste basket?"

"Well, we sat down with our backs to each other to wait for the carriage. After half an hour he suddenly jumped up, exclaiming: "Good gracious! I forgot to order one!"

"What a shame?"

"What a shame?"

"Wasn't it? We have no telephone and he had to walk five blocks to get a carriage. While he was gone I decided to arrange my hair to another style, so I wasn't ready when they came, and it was awfully late when we got started."

"But your troubles were over then!"
"Wel, not exactly, for you see I had made a mistake in the date, and the reception was not to be until this even-

MWFAW

PATARRH ... IN OHILDREN

For over two years my little girl's life was made miserable by a case of Catarrh. The discharge from the nose was large, constant and very offensive. Her eyes became inflamed, the lids swollen and very painful. After trying various remedies, I gave her S.S.S. aggravate the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured.
